

RESOLUTION
OF THE SECOND SOCIAL SCIENCE AND HUMANITIES FORUM
BETWEEN JAPAN AND RUSSIA

Lomonosov Moscow State University, October 11, 2013

Based on the Resolution of the First Social Science and Humanities Forum between Japan and Russia held at Lomonosov Moscow State University (Moscow, Russia) in December 2011, the results of the Third Japan-Russia Forum of Rectors held at Tohoku University (Sendai, Japan) in March 2012, and the Fourth Japan-Russia Forum of Rectors held at Lomonosov Moscow State University (Moscow, Russia) in October 2013, and in order to contribute to the development of academic exchange between Japan and Russia, both sides agreed with the following:

Section 1.

During the Second Social Science and Humanities Forum between Japan and Russia, “For Academic Exchange in New Era of Japan and Russia, and For the Construction of Mutual Complementary Relations”, Japanese and Russian scholars presented their researches in the field of Social Science and Humanities, and considered the results of the Forum to be fruitful as Russian and Japanese scientists found common points in the contents of their research.

Section 2.

Organizers shall work out the conception of publication and publish the materials of the Forum.

Section 3.

Participants of this Forum shall continue to communicate with each other and make efforts to design collaborative works such as modern teaching materials for Russian and Japanese students, multimedia contents, joint research projects, series of publications, cultural exchange etc.

Section 4.

The two sides believe that academic exchanges between Japan and Russia will develop and also expect that the Third Social Science and Humanities Forum between Japan and Russia will be held in Japan in 2015.
